Definitions

European Countries

According to the United Nations geoscheme, created by the United Nations Statistics Division, the following countries are defined as European countries:

Albania, Andorra, Armenia, Austria, Azerbaijan, Belarus, Belgium, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Croatia, Cyprus, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Georgia, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Iceland, Ireland, Italy, Kazakhstan, Latvia, Liechtenstein, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Republic of Macedonia, Malta, Moldova, Monaco, Montenegro, Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Russia, San Marino, Serbia, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, Turkey, Ukraine, United Kingdom, Vatican City.

This geographical division does not imply any assumption regarding political or other affiliations of countries, e.g. membership in the EU.

Note: Jordan and Israel have the status of active group members as they are founding members.

Non-European countries

In these statutes, non-European countries are defined as countries outside the geographic borders of Europe.
